

The Macedonian

AHC's new 36-unit affordable apartment building along Shirlington Road is more than 75% complete, and is accepting applications for a May opening. Features include a green roof and a business center for residents. Partners include the Macedonia Baptist Church and Bonder and Amanda Johnson Community Development Corporation.

