

The Grand Opening of The Frederick Thursday, May 8, 2008

AHC celebrates the Grand Opening of The Frederick, 108 new apartments for low- and moderate-income residents, conveniently located one-quarter mile from the Courthouse Metro. Named after Lou Ann Frederick, AHC's executive director from 1978 to 1998, the building also includes a 3,000-square-foot community center.

Left: From left to right, Andy Keyes, AHC Board Chairman; Walter Tejada, Arlington County Board Chairman; Walter D. Webdale, AHC President and CEO; Lou Ann Frederick, AHC's Executive Director from 1978 to 1998; Zeray-Z-Gebremariam, Frederick resident and sons, Henock Zecharias and Abbell Zecharias; Dallas Frederick; and Ralph F. Boyd, Jr., Chairman and CEO, Freddie Mac Foundation

Above: Lou Ann Frederick, right; husband, Dallas; and daughter, Summer

Left: Long time affordable housing activists and AHC supporters

Left: Ralph F. Boyd, Jr., Chairman and CEO, Freddie Mac Foundation and Jennifer Endo, AHC Director Resident Services

Above: Residents enjoy line dancing during Grand Opening celebration

Left: AHC Management LLC staff members with Lou Ann Frederick

Below right: John Welsh, left, AHC Director Multifamily Division and Mike Forry, Senior Vice President, SunTrust Bank

